The aditor of the Price Current states that he has perused a private letter to a gentleman of Washington, stating that a party of California miners, geologists, and prominent citizens of the District, are now prospecting the extenare estate of Mr. Thornton, in Fairfax county, in the vicinity of Washington, on the line of the Loudonn and Hampshire Railroad, and have been rewarded by discovering several wins of the precious metal. One, in particuha is described as running neross the whole estare for a distance of four miles.

The agent of the Central R. R., Staunton, received a dispatch last week, telling him to corrected delegates to the 'Convention at Alexmoria, half-fare. In giving tickets he asked geveral members to the "so-called Union Convention" if they "were going to the Convention.' They, 'thinking he meant their Convendon, answered "yes," and he gave them, tickets at half price. As it was a mistake all around he hopes it will be corrected by the delegates to the Radical Convention.

The committee of the Virginia Legislature were engaged last week, without concluding. ic examining the wanagement of the Williamsburg Janevic Lsy'um. Some of the testimony is believed to implicate Cov. Peirpoint, as being prity to be pursuit of a political object, through the pairon go of the Asylum.

Warrenton and vicinity seem to possess great ettirections to Confederate Cenerals. Living in or near the town, are Lieut. Gen. Pemberton, Maj. Cen. William Smith, Maj. Gen. Lomax, nig. Tere at Froton, Brig. Cen. Payne, Brig. Gen. Chorens Cmith, Col. Mosby, and of Capt-

Address to the People of Firginia, Concerning Immigration. The undersigned, appointed by the Governte constitute a "Soard of immigration," under the act of the General Assambly, entitled" An ner to Promote and Encourage Immigration into | L. the State of Virginia," mee and organized at the Capital, on Monday, the 14th instant. At the very threshold, the Board have found themselver greatly embarrassed by the failure of the Legislature to make an appropriation to cover the necessary er neares of even the first steps in the test has gued them. The act requires the nears of car ying as provisions into effect to be derived solely from deactions or loans of money, and one bonus to be puilby those who shall receive laborers through the instrumentally of the Pourd. At the same time it is made the duty of the Roard "To settle upon and earry into operation a practical plan for the innoduction of sober and industricus immigrants, with their families, from Europe, and especially from Zaglana and Scotland, into this State; to cause to be published such information as will fully show the natural resources of the State, its soil, climate and mineral wealth and produc-ions, and also the demand for labor and the inducements which Virginia offers as a home to the emimant; and generally to adopt, establish and organize such plans and measures as will tend to secure or facilitate the introduction of foreign labor into the State." Under these circumstances, the Board have no alternative but to appeal to the friends of immigration in the State for material aid, in the shape of dona- as, dons or loans of money, to enable them to carry late effect the provisions of the actunder which they have been appointed. They also most cordially invite the co-operation of all the societies organized in the State for a similar purpose.-The importance of bringing into Virginic a class of reliable white laborers is so generally felt and acknowledged that it is needless to enlarge

RE YOU AFFLICTED WITH A COUGH OR COLD?

ARE YOU PREDISPOSED TO CONSUMPTION?

Are the lives of your children in jeopardy from sudden and repeated attacks of Croup? If so purchase a box of BLADES' EUPHONIAL LUBRICATORS! The people's most sure and effectual remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Asthma, Bron-chitis, Diptheria and all pulmonary diseases.

The LUBRICATOR is a medeinal preparation in the form of Lozenge, which of all modes | DAYS from Alexandria, at 12 m. is the most pleasant and convenient. They contain no deleterious ingredient, and are warranted to be always safe, even for the weakest and most sensitive stomach. In Croup they give imme-diate relief. For Coughs and Colds they are invaluable. For Catarrh, Asthma, and Bronchitis they have no equal in the market, (vide Certificates accompanying each box.) Diptheria, that dreaded and desolating disease, they control wonderfully and almost immediately. No Public Speaker, Singer or Teacher, should be without them, as they remove hoarseness and strengthen and clear the voice.
